Notes: Your membership card will be passed/posted to you as soon as possible but please allow a few days for clearance of payment if made by cheque.

The company will only use the details provided so as to advise you of coming General Meetings and to meet its rights and obligations at law.

Article 27 of the Articles of Association (the company's constitution) provides that any person may apply to be admitted to membership of the company by signing an application form with such details as the Directors require and paying a 'one-off' fee of £5.00. Upon approval of the application by the Directors, the member will be entitled to speak and vote in General Meetings. No further payment is required of a member unless the company is wound up when existing members may be required to contribute £1.00 (the company being 'limited by guarantee') towards the winding up. This 'guarantee' continues to apply for one year after membership comes to an end.
